

Introduction to Child Sex Trafficking

Tuesday November 5, 2019 6:00 PM

Presented by:
Detective Suzanne Laiuppa
Bloomfield, CT Police Department

Program host: Blue Hills Fire Department

Please join us for a free community presentation on Human Trafficking. The Blue Hills Fire Department will be hosting this event on November 5, 2019 from 6-8 PM. The training will be held at the Blue Hills Fire Department, 1021 Blue Hills Ave, Bloomfield CT. Detective Laiuppa has investigated human trafficking cases locally and will be the evening's presenter.

The purpose of this community event is to educate attendees on the prevalence of child sex trafficking, laws pertaining to it, warning signs and ways to respond and combat this heinous crime. Attendees will be informed about support services available to them and to child sex trafficking victims. Case studies will be reviewed and discussed. Relevant resource materials will be provided.

Adults and mature teenagers are welcome to attend.

Light refreshments will be served.
